

At Least 10 Are Drowned

Millions of Property Damage When San Antonio River Goes on Rampage

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Sept. 27.—(P)—At least ten persons were drowned and millions of dollars in property damage was done to this historic Texas city when the picturesque San Antonio river went on a rampage early today after a cloudburst in its upper watershed.

Four of the dead were military policemen. Their names were not immediately available.

It was feared the death toll would be increased after complete reports are received.

Scores were rescued from rooftops. Many persons were dragged from the swirling waters of the ordinarily sluggish little threads through the business district.

Water was running two to six feet through some business streets and in one area it reached a depth of 25 feet.

All along the river's course came word of flooded homes and business houses.

Followed Storm

The flood followed a storm late last night which forced many theatregoers and others to sleep in hotel lobbies and corridors of downtown buildings.

Highway traffic was blocked in many directions. Airlines cancelled flight schedules.

Rescue workers rushed facilities to take care of the homeless. The St. Louis district of the Red Cross ordered representatives into the stricken area.

Some looting was reported as city, state and military authorities moved to patrol the city.

Rain continued to fall during the morning and warnings were issued to dwellers downstream.

Concern was felt for residents near Falls City and Kenedy, 40 and 60 miles southeast of San Antonio. The crest was expected at Falls City tomorrow night.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—(P)—Six relief workers are being sent to the San Antonio flood area by Midwest headquarters of the Red Cross. R. C. Edson, disaster director, announced today.

Dr. Harold Wood, Miss Betty Schmidt and Mrs. Claire State will leave St. Louis by plane today. Miss Frona Eager will go from Houston and Henry E. Snydan and Miss Margaret McCoy will fly to San Antonio from Central Minnesota.

Highways leading into the city were closed, and the Missouri Pacific railroad said train service has been "indefinitely delayed" by washouts at several points.

Communications Difficult
Communications were difficult, and lines were down in some sections.

Joe Fletcher, assistant director of the department of public safety, said in Austin that Highway Patrol Capt. N. R. Smith had notified him from San Antonio that "nine or ten" persons were dead, many more stranded and missing, and that boats were badly needed.

The flood was the worst since September 10, 1921.

At that time a cloudburst deluged the headwaters of the San Antonio river, sending a torrent of water into the city, while most of the population was asleep, flooding buildings up to the second floor in a matter of minutes.

Forty-nine persons perished, others were listed as missing, and property damage totaled $7,500,000.

After this disaster the city built an elaborate flood prevention system, including Almos dam and the San Antonio river cutoff.

Governor is Notified of Bonus March

500-Vehicle Caravan Through Sedalia Tonight

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 27.—(P)—The nation's first bonus march is scheduled to leave Springfield shortly after 8 o'clock tonight for Jefferson City in the form of a 500-vehicle caravan, loaded with veterans from Southwest Missouri who are angry at the failure of the state legislature to pass a bonus law.

Led by former Marine Corporal Murl E. Owen, the veterans plan to knock on the door of Governor Donnelly Saturday morning. Owen sent a telegram to the Governor last night, notifying him officially of the bonus march.

"And the Governor had better be in town or we'll go after him," Owen said.

To Demand Answer
Owen said the veterans will demand an answer—"yes or nay"—from the Governor on their proposal that a $400 bonus be paid to each of the state's veterans of World War II.

If the Governor's answer is "yes," Owen said the veterans will expect him to call the legislature into special session to enact a bonus law. If his answer is "No," Owen said the bonus backers will "stay until he changes his mind."

Owen also plans to proclaim the organization of the "Missouri Veterans' bonus committee" in Jefferson City Saturday morning.

Only Three Members
At present it has only three members—Owen, Harvey W. Yost, former navy chief petty officer, and B. E. Tabor, an ex-marine—but Owen said the trio will seek to enlist veterans on a state-wide basis "to campaign for a veterans' bonus."

Tonight's caravan won't be escorted by the Highway Patrol, Capt. George B. Kahler, commander of Troop D headquarters here, notified Owen this morning. Kahler explained that an army convoy, passing through Springfield late this afternoon, will tie up three of his cars—and he hasn't others to spare for the bonus marchers.

Lt. Dolginoff Returns Home

First Lieutenant Wesley J. Dolginoff, 1010 West Fourth street, who has been in service thirty-eight months, 26 months of that time overseas, arrived in the states from Germany last Saturday and in Sedalia Thursday afternoon.

Lt. Dolginoff was with the 459th Engineers, Third army, until July, 1945, when he was transferred to the military government and assigned to the American zone of occupation in Germany. He is on terminal leave until November 24.

Lt. Dolginoff was first with the industry and production control office in the American zone in Germany, later engineer with the public safety department.

His brother, Melvin B. Dolginoff, and Mrs. Dolginoff, of Kansas City, came to Sedalia today to visit with him.

While overseas Lt. Dolginoff frequently saw Howard Durham, a Sedalia friend, and on one occasion accidentally met Virgil Kitchen, also of Sedalia.

End Segregation

OF Job Applicants
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—Secretary of Labor Schwelbentbach today ordered an end to segregation of white and Negro job applicants in U. S. employment offices in the District of Columbia.

Former Secretary of Commerce Henry A. Wallace asked for this action two months ago after Negro organizations had conducted protest demonstrations.

Bonus Question Up

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—(P)—The question of bonuses for veterans of World War II awaits the thousands of American Legionnaires converging here for their 28th annual convention.

About 150,000 members of the Legion, its auxiliary and followers are expected to make it the nation's biggest postwar convention, opening Sunday.

Kilroy, Last Minute Entry

MILWAUKEE, Mont., Sept. 27.—(P)—Kilroy, the ubiquitous GI whose "Kilroy Was Here" signs decorated everything from palm trees to Japan's Ginza in World War II, broke into college politics. When ballots were counted at Montana university for freshman class officers, a dark horse threatened to upset regular candidates. Kilroy's name appeared mysteriously as a write-in candidate on a substantial number of ballots.

Household Items Sent by Mail Cost More

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—Prices of pots, pans and other household items of cast iron and enameledware sold by mail order will go up five per cent on Tuesday, the OPA announced today.

It said the increase will keep mail order catalog prices in line with recent price boosts granted other retailers.

At the same time the control agency announced that manufacturers of these household items will not be required to attach tickets showing retail price ceilings. OPA said manufacturers reported it virtually impossible to label the pots and pans at the factory.

As a result, OPA will allow the retailers to attach the ceiling-price tags on the basis of retail prices supplied them in writing by the manufacturers.

Other Price Boosts
Two other price boosts were announced last night.

Manufacturers of cloth window shades and window shade rollers were granted a 17 per cent increase, the third since May. OPA said the latest boost is to cover higher labor and material costs and applies to those selling through wholesale and retail outlets. Manufacturers selling direct to consumers are limited to a 11 per cent increase.

Manufacturers of machinery for wood and timber working won a 16 per cent increase in prices to replace a 10 per cent temporary boost on May 29. OPA said more of this equipment is needed for housing, building and furniture.

World Series Odds Vary

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—(P)—World series odds announced today by betting commissioner Jas. J. Carroll gave the St. Louis Cardinals a better chance than the Brooklyn Dodgers against the Boston Red Sox. The Red Sox will be odds-on favorites against either National league team.

If the Cardinals win the pennant, they will be 2-1 and the Red Sox 2-5. This means that $1 bet on the Cards would win $2, while it would take a $5 wager on the Red Sox to win $2.

Should Brooklyn win, the Dodgers would be 11-5 and the Red Sox 5-13. In other words, $5 placed on Brooklyn would win $11 and $13 backing Boston would win $5.

Carroll declined to give odds on the tight National league flag race.

Twice Exiled King Returns To Greek Soil

Plans to Make Formal Entry Into Athens Saturday

ATHENS, Sept. 27.—(P)—King George II returned to Greece tonight.

The twice-exiled king, flying in from England, landed at Eleusis, 12 miles northwest of Athens, and left by motor car to board a Greek warship in Salamis bay. He presumably planned to spend the night aboard a destroyer and make his formal entry into Athens Saturday morning.

AP Correspondent L. S. Chalkas, who arrived at the heavily guarded airfield shortly before the king, was placed under detention for 80 minutes. He was released about 40 minutes after the king had left the airfield.

The king stayed at the airfield only 10 minutes.

He was on Greek soil for the first time since 1941.

Spectators quoted him as saying: "I am sorry I don't recognize all of you but I extend my greetings."

A 101-gun salute was prepared for the monarch's triumphant return to Athens tomorrow.

The 56-year old monarch is scheduled to arrive in Faleron aboard the Greek cruiser Themistocles, where he will be greeted by Premier Constantine Tsaldaris and the entire cabinet.

The government shrouded in secrecy the precise details of the journey from London and extraordinary precautions taken for his safety.

Three formal events are scheduled for the king's first day in Athens—a Te Deum service at the Greek cathedral, the laying of a wreath on the tomb of the unknown soldier and an address from the balcony of the old parliament.

The police several days ago made a house to house survey along the entire route of procession and persons have been forbidden to watch the event from house tops or terraces closer than 100 yards, but the public will be allowed to observe from windows and balconies.

All permits to carry firearms have been suspended by police order, and the public has been warned that they may be searched for arms.

No flowers or any other objects may be thrown at the monarch's car.

Form Organization To Increase Travel

WAYNESVILLE, Mo., Sept. 27.—(P)—An organization to encourage increased travel and resort business in the Gasconade watershed was formed here last night, with W. E. Dickinson, resort operator near Hazel Green, as temporary chairman.

Mrs. Dru Pippin, Waynesville, was chosen temporary secretary. The group is similar to one previously organized in the Meramec river valley. Both organizations will work with the state resources and development commission in promoting recreational development.

Air Forces Hopelessly Inadequate

States MacArthur, Breaking Silence on Manila Area on First Day of the War

By Russell Brines
TOKYO, Sept. 27.—(P)—General MacArthur today broke his long silence regarding the loss of ground of most U. S. airplanes in the Manila area on the very first day of the war with the statement: "Our air forces x x x were hopelessly outnumbered and never had a chance of winning."

"Our air forces in the Philippines, containing many antiquated models, were hardly more than a token force with insufficient equipment, incomplete fields and inadequate maintenance," he elaborated. "They were completely overwhelmed by the enemy's superior forces."

MacArthur was prodded into his long-awaited statement by charges made by Lt. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, commander of the Philippine air force in 1941, in his book "The Brereton Diaries," recently published.

Accounts received here said Brereton wrote that he had requested permission of Lt. Gen. Richard K. Sutherland, then chief of staff, to assault Formosa. It was from Formosa that the Japanese bombers flew to attack the Philippines. Brereton said the permission was withheld so long that the available small force of B-17 bombers was destroyed on the ground at Clark field, 90 miles north of Manila.

Not Recommended
MacArthur replied that American flyers could not have attacked Formosa before the Japanese planes wiped out the Philippine-based bombers on the first day of the war. His statement was issued to the press in reply to questions regarding Brereton's book.

"General Brereton never recommended an attack on Formosa" (Please Turn To Page 6 Col. 2)

Name Gordon On Commission

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 27.—(P)—Gov. Phil M. Donnelly appointed Thorne J. Gordon of Jefferson City to the appellate judicial commission today for a four-year term. He succeeds H. J. Waters, lay member in the Kansas City district.

Simultaneously Chief Justice Ernest M. Tipton of the Missouri Supreme Court called a meeting of the commission in his chambers November 1 to select the three members of the bar from whom the governor will appoint a successor to Judge Ernest S. Gantt under the non-partisan court plan.

Judge Gantt has announced his intention to retire at the end of his term Dec. 31. The chief justice is ex officio member of the judicial commission, which is composed of lawyers and laymen.

DETROIT, Sept. 27.—(P)—Charles E. Dewey put up with his wife throwing dishes, books and shoes at him, he told Circuit Judge Thomas F. Maher.

Then, he said, she ordered him to stand in a Nylon line for her. He won a divorce from Mrs. Lucile Kimie, whom he married in Hawaii last December 22.

Indians Peeved at Uncle Sam

POLSON, Mont., Sept. 27.—(P)—Tomorrow is American Indian day, set aside to honor the aborigines of this nation, but the country's 500,000 tribesmen aren't in a celebrating mood. They're peeved at Uncle Sam.

In this Northwestern Montana Flathead Indian reservation community on the southern shore of vast Flathead lake, young, well-educated Stephen De Meres, a Salish tribesman who is secretary of the American Indians of Montana, tells you:

"I don't believe the Indians will do much celebrating tomorrow. They're not in the mood. They're getting up with the gruff they've been getting for 300 years."

To point out the feelings of the Indians, the blond war veteran explains that the projected construction of Garrison dam, a North Dakota reclamation project, has brought heated protests because Evans, 515 Dal-Whi-Mo court, queen of the junior class at Smith-Cotton high school, will be crowned activity queen at the football game between Smith-Cotton high school and Kemper at Liberty park tonight. Miss Evans will be crowned Activity queen between the halves of the football game and will again be crowned at the coronation dance, which will be held after the game at the Sacred Heart school hall.

Should Run Counties Like Business

Retiring President Of Association Tells Judge Members

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 27.—(P)—O. L. Carrothers of Carthage, retiring president, told Missouri county judges today they should demand that the legislature return to them "more control over the expenditures of county funds."

"I had to run my own business like most counties are run, I wouldn't be in business very long, he said.

More and more fiscal powers are taken from the county administrative bodies every year, he said in urging the judges to keep after their legislators for reforms.

Carrothers was succeeded as president at the final business session of the Judges' Association by Luman F. Matthews, Overland Republican, presiding judge of the St. Louis county court.

Other officers, all reelected, are J. L. O'Bryan of Warren, vice president; State Senator Harry J. Rivercomb of Shelby, secretary-treasurer for a 12th term, and R. G. Clinkscales of Columbia, chairman of the legislative committee.

Suggest Five

In a resolution the association recommended five county judges to Gov. Phil M. Donnelly for appointment to a commission to aid the State Highway Department in administering the King "milk route" law for state aid on rural roads.

The association listed Judges Frank B. Clark of Ray county, Robert Crocker of Benton county, C. G. Laretton of Marion county, Charles M. Buchanan of Cole county and O. L. Carrothers of Jasper county. Carrothers and Crocker are Republicans, the others Democrats.

In another resolution the judges asked the legislature to submit a constitutional amendment to restore their old status as courts of record—taken from them by the 1945 constitution. The resolution said the change had caused "great injustice and is entirely impracticable."

Pigs Is Pigs

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 27.—(P)—Farmer Henry Ignaciak says he and his pigs have one thing in common—they're fed up.

Ignaciak paid a $20 fine in a district court on a trespassing charge—but his 50 pigs were the trespassers. Neighbors testified the porkers had been coming on their property and eating tomatoes, oats, apples, flowers, etc.

"Here I am trying to get more meat on the tables," Ignaciak told the court, "and what do I get out of it? Help is scarce, nails to fix fences are scarce. I've worked hard and all I get for those pigs is grief."

Find Opossum In the Attic

Mrs. James Morton, 318 West Broadway, found a surprise guest in her home this morning. Men employed inspecting her house rang her doorbell and informed her there was something alive in her attic. An investigation disclosed it was a "possum," which ran out on the roof, then to a tree limb.

The intruder was shot and killed, after permission had been given by Police Officer Tom Lingle, on duty at the Broadway school, to shoot it.

John L. Lewis In Hospital

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—President John L. Lewis of the United Mine Workers underwent an emergency appendectomy operation today and afterward his physician reported that he "came through the operation all right."

The son, Dr. John L. Lewis, Jr., telephoned this report to K. C. Adams, editor of the Mine Workers Journal. He described his father's condition as good. Dr. Lewis did not perform the operation, but witnessed it.

Officials of Emergency hospital, who announced the operation on the 66-year-old labor leader, withheld details.

Lewis was taken to the hospital about noon.

Lewis was stricken while preparing to go to Atlantic City for the 39th convention of the United Mine Workers beginning next Tuesday.

New Ceilings for Meat Dishes Next Week

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—Reversing a previous policy, OPA announced today it will allow increases in restaurant ceiling prices on meals and individual items having meat as the base.

The price agency announced that it will issue new ceilings for the meat dishes early next week. Until then restaurants will be required to observe their June 30 ceilings.

OPA's previous order to roll back the prices to the former June 30 levels brought a storm of protests throughout the nation. Many restaurants and hotels said they would be forced to shut down.

Plunges to Death

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(P)—Douglas Wickliffe Breashear, Jr., 27, son of a Richmond, Va., executive of the American Tobacco company, plunged to his death early today from the 76th floor of the Empire State building.

The man's body cleared projection steps-backs on the north side of the building—the world's greatest—and landed in West 33rd street, about 30 feet west of Fifth avenue.

Fix Auto Prices

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—OPA today fixed the maximum price for the new Kaiser special four-door sedan at $1,645.

At the same time, the agency fixed a maximum ceiling of $1,795 on the four-door Frazer sedan.

Another sore spot with America's Indians is a law which prohibits the sale of liquor to them. "It's not because we want or crave liquor," the tall, handsome Salish tribesman continues. "It's just because this law is one of many which discriminates against us."

"We have freed the Filipinos, and we have been fair and generous to subjects outside the United States, but a diabolic Indian bureau, with an arbitrary attitude and jammed with red tape, has sought to lead us like children. We want the rights of citizens, not charges."

Decides Not to Discuss Scarcity With Decontrol Board and Federal Agencies

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—The war department ordered today a reduction of 3,000,000 pounds a week in the army's meat purchases because of the current shortage. Maj. Gen. T. B. Larkin, the quartermaster general, said in a statement the army's priority demand this week for 15,000,000 pounds weekly has been scaled down to 12,000,000 pounds.

The reduction, he said, will mean a 12 per cent cut in meat issues to troops and will be made up by additional ration issues of fish, macaroni and cheese and dairy products.

By Marvin L. Arrowsmith

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—Postmaster General Robt. E. Hannegan tossed orders from Democratic big wigs in the waste basket today and decided instead to go along with President Truman in the meat controversy.

The executive committee of the Democratic national committee, which Hannegan heads, had directed him to discuss the meat shortage with the price decontrol board.

Kemper M. A. Meets Tigers Here Tonight

Coach Dow is Using
All Lettermen in Starting Lineup

Kemper Military Academy high school football team comes to Sedalia tonight to meet the Smith-Cotton Tigers on the Liberty park gridiron. Game time has been set for 8 o'clock. The Activity Queen will be crowned during the half-time period.

Probable lineup of the Tigers for tonight is: Mark Bergman left end, Sid Kennon left tackle, Don Cook left guard, Carl Carbour center, Frank Urban right guard, Jim Egbert right tackle and David Miller right end. In the backfield Bob Schultz at quarterback, Calvin "Cal" Rodgers left half back, Harold Mickens right half back and Don Walz full back.

Coach Ralph "Stub" Dow announced the starting lineup in the lettermen back for 1945. However, there are any number of players who will be riding the bench at the kickoff that will see plenty of action on the field before the night of playing has been concluded.

The Tigers, according to Coach Dow are at a disadvantage in the game tonight due to the lack of experience as well as the lack of practice. The Sedalia team has had hardly two weeks workout while the opponents have more than a month of football under their belts.

Because the lettermen have had previous experience from last season is the reason for starting these boys. However, the team as a whole has been doing excellent work for these past two weeks and the boys have endeavored to get as much out of practice as possible in such a short time. The team suffered the loss of two boys because they were not eligible to play due to previous year's grades.

Tonight Clarence Whiteman of Warrensburg, CMSTC, will be the referee; Nelson Dwight, umpire and T. J. Hinderks, head linesman. The latter two officials are from the University of Missouri at Columbia.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—If precedent and punch mean anything, tonight's Tony Zale-Rocky Graziano middleweight championship fight will end in a knockout. There has been at least one year and all but one of them wound up with someone on the floor.

The only champion who had to go the full distance was flyweight Jackie Patterson in turning back Joe Curran's challenge. As for Rocky, you know he's a guy who knocks them over with one wallop. Tony requires a few more punches, but he still can knock them flat.

Championship Bout Tonight

By Sid Feder

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(P)—An explosion goes off in Yankee stadium at 8 p. m. (CST) tonight, and the fellow who walks out of it all in one piece—whether its Titleholder Tony Zale or Challenger Rocky Graziano—winds up with the middleweight championship of the world.

The 32-year-old ex-Indiana steel-puddler puts his crown on the line for the first time in his five years as champion against the young tough guy challenge of 24-year old Rocky from the sidewalks of New York's lower East Side.

Promoter Mike Jacobs is expecting to hold a party for some 40,000 customers and a gate of over $400,000—possibly exceeding even the all-time record of $452,648 for a clambake between a couple of little men, other than heavyweights.

The benevolent bookmakers figure the East Side swatter is going to wind up on top, although they are not nearly as sure as they were a month or two ago when they made Graziano a 5 to 14 choice. Now it's a case of taking 15 to 10 if you like Tony and 10 to 10 if you're a Graziano man.

The Rock will scale about 153 pounds while Zale will carry 157 or 158.

New Athletic Program For Marines

The commandant of the United States Marine Corps has authorized and urges a large scale athletic program for the Marine Corps. Sgt. R. L. Looney, of the Springfield Marine Corps office stated this would not be a new policy for the Marines, but merely a revival of pre-war athletics.

Prevail Sports
Sgt. Looney gave a summary of prewar sports engaged in by the Marines and told of the difficulties Marines in foreign stations encounter finding opponents for sporting events. Practically all foreigners refer to our soccer as football. The famed Fourth Marines in Shanghai attempted to master soccer in the tournaments held among the English, French, Italians, and other foreign nations represented in China. Although they became pastmasters of the British rugby only two American soccer players were ever recognized by the "World Team" which was a team composed of the chosen players from all the nations represented.

Baseball in Hawaii
The Pekin and Tientsin embassy guards were not entered in the football league, but engaged the Chinese colleges in baseball and basketball tournaments. In the northern posts hockey teams were organized, but the Americans were too inexperienced for the natives of the Scandinavian countries who were staying in the Orient. In the warmer posts tennis teams were organized to bring honors to the posts they represented. The Pearl Harbor Marine Guard detachment held several trophies for tennis, golf and basketball. The Hawaiian boys were adept to baseball and gave the Leather-necks some stiff competition. The larger posts like the Marine Corps base at San Diego produced championship teams in the vast field of sports. The San Diego Marines were undefeated in '39 and lost only one game to Oregon State in '40.

Dodgers Cut Cards Lead to Half a Game

St. Louis and Brooklyn Play all Games at Home

By Joe Reichler
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Hank Greenberg, Detroit's hard hitting first baseman, who yesterday collected his 43rd and 44th home runs, needs only one in each of the Tigers' last three games to break Rudy York's single month record of 18 established in August, 1937.

Hank already has slammed 16 home runs this month, although he has played in only 23 of the Tigers' 28 September games. Greenberg has driven in 38 runs to take over the American League leadership in that department with 125, as well as in home runs.

Greenberg's pair of round trips in the fourth time he has hit in a game this season, yesterday the Tigers defeat the St. Louis Browns 6-3.

Cut Cards Lead
The battling Brooklyn Dodgers cut the St. Louis Cardinals' National League lead to a mere half-game when they defeated the Philadelphia Phils 8-2 before a capacity crowd of 31,708 at Ebbets' field.

The Cards, idle yesterday, have three games left to play compared to only two for the Browns. Each team plays its remaining games at home. The Cards taking on the Chicago Cubs in all three games and the Dodgers clashing with the Boston Braves.

Both the Braves and Cubs are expected to offer stiff opposition, especially so since they are in a struggle for third place. At present only a half game separates them with the Cubs having the edge.

The Dodgers' victory proved costly, however, since Outfielder Pete Reiser suffered a broken bone in his left leg sliding back to first base in the first inning. He was taken to Peck Memorial hospital for X-rays.

Cubs Defeated Pirates
The Cubs came up with four runs in the last half of the eighth to defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-3 and break a third place deadlock with the Braves. As Boston was held to a split by the New York Giants.

Mort Cooper nabbed the first game for the Braves 8-0 with a neat three-hit performance, but the Giants won the second 5-4, a pinch hit home run by Sid Gordon in the last half of the ninth decided the issue.

With Mickey Haefer outpitching Jess Flores, the Washington Senators shut out the Philadelphia Athletics 2-0. Joe Grace's walk, Stan Spence's triple and Cecil Travis' single accounted for both Washington runs in the sixth.

Ask Farmers To Sell Old Plow-Shares
WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—An appeal to farmers to turn their old plowshares and other obsolete equipment into steel scrap went out Thursday from Civilian Production Administrator John D. Small.

Thousands of tons of old machinery and other scrap is collected from the nation's farms, Small said the present high rate of steel production may drop. Some 16,000 farm implement and equipment dealers also are aiding, Small said, and dealers

Baseball's 'War of Nerves' Rages Today

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(P)—Baseball's "war of nerves"—the National League pennant race—still raged today, with the difference separating the front-running St. Louis Cardinals and the on-coming Brooklyn Dodgers once more half a game.

The Dodgers narrowed the gap yesterday when they defeated Philadelphia, 8-2, while the Cardinals were idle. The Brooks, idle today, still have two games to play as compared to three for the Redbirds. The Dodgers meet Boston twice in Brooklyn and the Cards clash with Chicago in St. Louis.

Illinois vs. Notre Dame Saturday

By Harold Classen

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(P)—Illinois has been trying to defeat Notre Dame on the gridiron since 1893 and never has succeeded. This forecast, making the second trip down the 1946 grid highway, predicts the Illini won't make the grade again tomorrow.

Army over Oklahoma: The Cade's are hunting for their 20th victory in a row and this will be one of their toughest contests. Oklahoma's reserves are superior to Army's but the Cadet first string rates the edge over the Sooner starters. Even of Doc Blanchard is able to play, Army won't have it easy.

Oklahoma A. and M. over Arkansas: After tomorrow Arkansas will not want to see Fenimore anymore.

Texas over Colorado: Bobby Layne, the Texas great, is trying to cram a full season of activity in the first few games just in case the draft board decides he should wear a different uniform come November, Texas.

Skipping over the chalk lines in a hurry: Friday night: Kansas over Denver.

Saturday: Minnesota over Nebraska, Ohio State over Missouri, Northwestern over Iowa State, Iowa over Purdue, Marquette over St. Louis.

Tulsa over New Mexico A. and M., Hard' 1-Simmons over Kansas State.

Iowa Tops On Farm Income

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—

Iowa topped the nation in farm income for the first six months of this year, the agriculture department reported Thursday.

In the nation as a whole farm income amounted to $726,351,000, a decrease from $8,899,690,000 in comparison with the corresponding six months of 1945.

Iowa contributed $742,655,000 to the national total, or about $2,000,000 more than its closest rival, California, with $740,882,000, and $33,049,000 more than Iowa's total for the first half of 1945.

Receipts in the west north central states—the nation's wealthiest farm area, in which Iowa is located—climbed slightly despite the national decrease. Total farm income in the area was $2,525,174,000 compared with $2,438,090,000 in the corresponding six months of 1945.

Cash receipts of farm income for the first six months of 1946 compared with the corresponding period of 1945, as reported by the agriculture department for other states included:

Missouri, $271,001,000 and $311,151,000; Nebraska, $385,435,000 and $335,907,000; Kansas, $330,705,000 and $351,791,000;

Friday night: Kansas over Denver.

Saturday: Minnesota over Nebraska, Ohio State over Missouri, Northwestern over Iowa State, Iowa over Purdue, Marquette over St. Louis.

Tulsa over New Mexico A. and M., Hard' 1-Simmons over Kansas State.

Tea Company Fined $175,000

DANVILLE, Ill., Sept. 27.—(P)—The New York Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company and 24 officers and subsidiary corporations today were fined a total of $175,000 following their conviction on charges of conspiracy to monopolize a substantial part of the nation's food business.

Federal Judge Walter C. Lindley, in pronouncing sentence, vacated a portion of his conviction order of Saturday and found three other subsidiaries and one officer innocent of the charges, which were that the defendants restrained and monopolized trade in violation of anti-trust laws.

"I think in my anxiety to get this matter disposed of, I was in error concerning a finding of guilty as to these four defendants," he said.

The defendants acquitted were the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company of Delaware, Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company of Vermont, Inc., American Coffee Corporation of Jersey City, N. J., and Francis M. Kurtz, vice president of the American Coffee Corporation.

Nation Must Remain Strong

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—The present international situation is dangerous and disturbing but "not at all unsolvable by peaceful means," Rep. Short (R-Mo), member of the house military committee said today.

"The hope of the future rests with the United Nations," Short said, but until it becomes strong this nation "must remain strong and invincible."

"It is criminal folly to say that war with Russia is unavoidable, and I refuse to accept this defeatist attitude," Short said in a statement, adding:

"It is criminal folly also to stick our head in the sand like an ostrich and blind our eyes to stark facts and naked reality. Our present situation is dangerous and disturbing but not at all unsolvable by peaceful means." America "has only good will toward the Russian people," he said, and "is not going to attempt to force democracy upon anyone but we shall defend it unto the death here at home."

United Youth Fellowship Organization

Last Sunday evening, at the Broadway Presbyterian church, the young people and the pastors of four Sedalia churches effected an organization to be known as the United Youth Fellowship. The pastors and churches participating are Rev. H. Janssen of the Broadway Presbyterian church, at Broadway and Kentucky avenue; Rev. R. C. Williamson, Congregational-Presbyterian church at Sixth street and Osage avenue; Rev. H. U. Campbell, of the Fifth Street Methodist church, Fifth street and Osage avenue, and Rev. W. C. Bessmer, of the Evangelical and Reformed church, at Fourth street and Vermont avenue.

Rev. L. A. Swan, of Trinity Lutheran church, was the guest speaker, who gave an inspirational talk, "Signposts." Afterwards he remained with some young people from his church for the fellowship supper and an hour of games led by the Broadway Presbyterian group.

Three Fold Purpose

The purpose of this organization is of a three fold nature, endeavoring to bring to young people a fellowship which will be inspirational and recreational and which will unite them for active service in the local community and the world.

At this first meeting it was decided that forthcoming meetings will be held at 5:30 p. m. on the second and fourth Sundays of the month at alternating churches in the following order: Broadway Presbyterian, Congregational-Presbyterian, Fifth Street Methodist and Evangelical and Reformed.

The officers elected were: President, Jean Callis, Broadway Presbyterian; vice president, Donna Marie Robinson, Fifth Street Methodist; secretary, Ira Kay Espe, Evangelical and Reformed; treasurer, Mildred Haney, Congregational-Presbyterian.

The program committee chairman is Miss Mary Hausman of the Evangelical and Reformed church, with the following young people as assisting members: Ruth Ann Yunker of Broadway Presbyterian, Philip Burford of the Methodist church, Mildred Haney of the Congregational Presbyterian church and Ira Espe of the Evangelical and Reformed church.

The next meeting will be held at the Congregational-Presbyterian church on October 13th with a worship program including Part I of a series of Kodachrome slides, "The Panorama of the Christian Church," by Roland H. Bainton. This series has four parts which will be presented at various times throughout the year. Other times there will be leading inspirational speakers of Sedalia and of the larger Christian community. There will also be programs of youth participation.

Mrs. Lowell Glaze To Speak At Sunday School

Mrs. Lowell Glaze will speak at the Sunday school assembly hour at 10:15 o'clock Sunday morning at the Epworth church, Broadway and Engineer, on the National Assembly of Woman's Society of Christian Service, to which she was a delegate from the Methodist churches in Sedalia.

Mosby P. T. A. Meeting

The Mosby Parent Teachers Association met September 20th, with the president, Mrs. Jess Fairfax, presiding. It was decided by the members to supply paper towels and liquid soap for the school. Following the business meeting a short program was given, after which refreshments were served.

75 Percent Compensation Plan Adopted

PARIS, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A principle of 75 per cent compensation for war damage to allied property was virtually established for all five European peace treaties today, erasing a troublesome controversy, but the nations remained free to present divergent views to the peace conference plenary session.

The United States and Russia joined in the Balkans-Finnish economic commission against Britain's demand for full compensation. But the Russian delegate, Financial Expert V. S. Guearchenko, expressed annoyance that a move for only 25 per cent payment, defeated by a 9-4 vote, had been termed an American proposal.

Russia sought only up to 33 per cent, he said, and therefore the lowest demand against former enemy states should be called a Russian proposal.

Text Adopted

The commission adopted a text of the war damage compensation clause for the Romanian treaty, but decided to leave out the figure, already voted for the Italian treaty, was adopted for the others, it was agreed the members would be free to support minority reports in the plenary session—Britain for 100 per cent compensation; the United States and Russia for the lowest compensation.

Neither the United States nor Russia voted for the 75 per cent principle. The British and Empire delegates, who would have blocked anything less than 75 per cent, voted for it as the least distasteful of the partial compensation proposals. Indications were, however, that there was a willingness to compromise on the question when it is raised anew in the foreign ministers council.

Heated Debate On US Clause

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27.—(AP)—The National Federation of Women's Republican Clubs engaged in a heated 40-minute debate today on a statement of policy clause endorsing the United Nations—then sent it back to the resolutions committee for consideration. Recommendation came on what appeared to be a close decision in a voice vote of the 200 delegates attending the Federation's fourth annual convention.

There was both support and opposition for the clause which stated "We endorse the United Nations organization as the best instrument produced so far in an effort to promote a lasting peace." Lottie Halman O'Neill, long-time member of the Illinois state legislature, touched off debate by suggesting "the aims and goals" be inserted after the words "we endorse."

She urged that because the United Nations charter contains the veto clause, people all over the country are questioning its wisdom and wondering whether the veto clause will lead to another war.

Mrs. Hannah Durham, Allentown, Pa., urged that the entire clause be removed from the statement and that the women devote their efforts to electing a Republican to the United States senate and leave the debate to the senate.

Gives Ruling on Marriage Law

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Attorney General J. E. Taylor ruled today applicants for Missouri marriage licenses need not present a certificate from a physician if their serological tests for syphilis are negative.

The opinion by assistant attorney general C. B. Burns, Jr., said it was "arbitrary and capricious" for the state health department to require a laboratory report to be attested by a physician. Such action is invalid, he wrote, and cannot be upheld under state law.

The opinion concluded that a laboratory report alone would be sufficient to meet the requirements of the law when the serological tests prove negative. It recommended revision of state health division forms to conform with the ruling.

Physicians' certificates would continue to be required when the tests were positive, indicating the presence of disease.

Governor Coke Stevenson offered the help of the State Guard to prevent looting and pilfering.

to me and I know nothing of such a recommendation having been made. MacArthur stated flatly, "In the short interval of time involved, it is doubtful that an attack could have been set up and mounted before the enemy's arrival."

In his annual report Gen. H.H. Arnold said three-fourths of the available B-17s in the Philippines—the only heavy bombers based there—were destroyed on the ground at Clark field. We in the Philippines (Brines was an Associated Press correspondent in Manila at the time) were informed of this fatal assault at 1:30 p. m., on Dec. 8, 1941 (Manila time)—the first day of the war—when U. S. planes returned from refueling after once having been in the air.

Lost, But No Discredit
MacArthur, who commanded U. S. defense forces in the Philippines, said he attached "no blame to General Brereton or other members of the command for incidents of the battle. Nothing could have saved the day for them. They lost, but with no discredit."

I said the Japanese struck the Philippines five months before sufficient reinforcements could make a defense possible could have reached the islands.

MacArthur made these additional points:

1—Tactical handling of the air force, "including all measures for its protection against air attack of his planes on the ground" was entirely in Brereton's hands.

2—Brereton's reported request for permission to attack Formosa "must have been of a most nebulous and superficial character as there is no official record of it at headquarters."

3—Japanese planes attacking from Formosa had fighter support from imperial navy aircraft carriers and Americans lacking such fighter protection "would have no chance of success" in bombing heavily fortified Formosa.

First Public Discussion
MacArthur had ordered, several days before the war, the withdrawal of heavy bombers to Mindanao and half of the available bombers—13—had been sent there.

This exchange of statements was the first public discussion by key figures of the incident often called "Little Pearl Harbor." Loss of the bombers doubtless hastened the Japanese conquest of the Philippines.

A Japanese pilot who participated in that fateful raid on Clark field told me after I arrived in Tokyo for the occupation that the timing of the assault was not planned, but was determined by heavy fog which delayed the takeoff, originally scheduled much earlier in the morning.

At the time, we learned, U. S. bombers were lined up neatly in rows for refueling and the pilots were at lunch or taking showers. The fatal attack was the third of the day on Clark field. Many American heroes emerged that day, but when the assault ended the Americans had little left to challenge the increasingly strong and arrogant Japanese air power.

Examinations In November

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A new state personnel advisory board charged with administering a new merit system for an estimated 5,000 state employees, announced today it would conduct examinations for personnel director late in November.

No date was fixed. The board said the deadline for applications would be set for mid-November.

Governor Phil M. Donnelly will appoint the director from a list of three nominees presented by the board. The salary will be fixed by the board between $5,400 and $6,000 a year.

Outlining stiff qualifications for the directorship, the board said candidates must have formal education equivalent to graduation from a four-year accredited college and broad professional experience in supervising personnel work.

The door was left open for applicants either from private business or public agencies, but the board said only experienced personnel administrators would be considered. Both oral and written examinations will be given the applicants.

President Harry S. Truman presented to the Grand Lodge the gavel he used in presiding over the Senate while vice president of the United States.

Grand Masters from several states were at the meeting, and Senator Frank P. Briggs delivered an address at Tuesday night's session, which was also attended by Senator Forrest Donnell, a former Grand Master.

While in St. Louis the Sedalians made a tour of the various buildings of the Masonic Home for orphan children and elderly people, the Sedalia men having a visit with Wm. H. Paul, for many years chief of the Sedalia fire department, and who is now in feeble health due to old age.

No Comment on Engagement

BRUSSELS, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A royal spokesman declined to confirm or deny today reports that Regent Prince Charles of Belgium is engaged to Winston Churchill's daughter, Mary.

"Rumors have been spread several times," the spokesman said, "that the Prince was engaged to a foreign princess or to the daughter of some foreign statesman, but in each of these circumstances it has always been the Prince's policy neither to confirm nor deny these rumors."

Since Churchill and his daughter arrived in Belgium Wednesday they have been guests of the Prince at the Chateau of Ciergnon in the Ardennes and it has been emphasized that the former prime minister's visit was purely of a private nature.

Refuse to Take Trolleys

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Pickets active for the first time in a four-day power strike of 3,200 Duquesne Light company employees today threw lines around trolley barns and trolleys began to leave the streets, depriving 1,000,000 daily riders of their principal transportation.

Motorists of Division 85, A. F. L. Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railways and Motor Coach Employees refused to take the trolleys through the independent unionists' lines.

Earlier, 29 city bus routes operated by the Pittsburgh Motor Coach company were suspended when bus operators also refused to cross picket lines.

No settlement was in sight. Union President George Mueller agreed to resume stalemate negotiations with "anyone in authority" but fixed no time or place and no conference were scheduled.

Meanwhile, pickets appeared at various company plants after dissolution of an anti-strike injunction. They halted delivery of coal at a main power station. They also persuaded bus drivers on 29 city routes to leave their vehicles garaged rather than cross picket lines. The bus lines are operated by the Pittsburgh Motor Coach company.

Explains Why He Struck Man

BATESBURG, S. C., Sept. 27.—(AP)—Police Chief Lynwood Lantier Shull of Batesburg, charged by the justice department with beating and torturing a Negro veteran, told newsmen today that he was "no harsher than necessary to complete the arrest."

The justice department filed a criminal information in federal district court in Columbia, S. C., yesterday alleging that Shull had "beaten and tortured" Isaac Woodward, Jr., of the Bronx, N. Y., last February 12 in violation of the federal civil rights statute.

It further charged that Woodward was "permanently blind as a result of the alleged beating."

Shull explained to reporters that he arrested Woodward at a bus station where he said the Negro was creating a disturbance. He said Woodward apparently had been drinking after being discharged at Augusta, Ga., earlier in the day.

"I hit him across the front of the head," Shull said, "after he attempted to take my blackjack. I grabbed it away from him and cracked him across the head."

Quit Giving 'Quiz' Answers

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Beginning October 1 employees of the Brooklyn public library and its 34 branches will not supply the answers to radio quiz programs.

Declaring that questioners telephoned "at the rate of three or four a minute, tying up telephone circuits" and were impairing the morale of a skeleton force, Dr. Milton James Ferguson, chief librarian laid down the edict.

"... the identification of 'Leonard Lucy' or the architect of the White House, merely for the sake of publicizing some business concern and enriching some housewife with the leisure to listen to daytime radio, seems a matter of small moment," he said.

June Marlowe Gets Divorce

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A year of legal skirmishing with Oscar Herman Davison, actress June Marlowe has obtained a divorce from him on grounds of cruelty.

She charged that the Chilean film writer took their son, Ricardo Alfredo, now five, from Mexico City in 1943, and did not return.

Miss Marlowe, whose legal name is Martha Jane Davison, obtained a Mexican divorce in 1944 but learned it was invalid in California.

She asked $1,000 monthly alimony but this was denied because Davison is in Mexico and beyond the court's jurisdiction.

Civilian Menu Tops Soldiers

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(AP)—The army quartermaster estimated today a soldier eats less food than the average civilian.

The army's master menu for troops allows an average of 3,780 calories a day, the quartermaster said, while many non-soldiers burn up 4,500.

Left out of account however, the War Department acknowledged, are the candies and other sweets soldiers buy at post exchanges or elsewhere.

The master menu, which lays out meals three months in advance, provides the soldier with 273 pounds a year of meat, poultry and fish—100 pounds more than the average for the civilian group with the highest consumption rate.

Harry Kohlborn Buys Bakery at Chillicothe

Chillicothe, Mo., Sept. 27.—The Crookshanks bakery, in operation here twenty-five years, has been sold to Harry J. Kohlborn, of Kansas City, who will retain the name. Mr. Kohlborn is a former Sedalia, a brother of Mrs. Maude Donegan, 231 South Quincy avenue.

Pickets Mill Around Studios

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Half a dozen arrests for minor disorders marked the second day of the current movie strike today as nearly a thousand pickets milled around the gates of Hollywood's larger film studios.

Four men were arrested at Warner Brothers, storm center of last year's violent strike. One of them, Don Q. Regan, 20, was booked for inciting a riot after a Burbank policeman fired two shots over his head. The officer charged the youth threw a rock at one of 17 buses that carried 850 employees through a line of some 300 pickets.

At the same studio, a man was arrested for spreading tacks in the driveway and another for slugging a free lance photographer.

At Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio, where pickets numbered 455, one man was arrested for carrying a blackjack and another for breaking a window of an automobile. A man was slugged outside RKO radio studio.

Labor Courts Suggested

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Specialized labor courts to effect industrial peace were suggested today by David L. Miller, St. Louis, president of the Missouri bar.

"One of the foremost problems of our nation, next to world peace, is labor peace," Miller told lawyers gathered here for the bar convention. "Ultimately I believe specialized labor courts will have to settle this problem—perhaps a United Nations forum, applied to industrial relationships, whatever we can contribute there should be done."

Approximately 2,000 of the state's 6,024 lawyers were expected to be registered by tonight for the two-day meeting.

Thousands of Blue and Rose-Colored Brassieres; No Wacs

By Tom Reedy
(For the Bayle)

FRANKFURT, Germany.—(AP)—The French supply officer tossed off his glass of Rhine wine, looked out the window and mused:

"Yes, the French Wacs—as you would call them—are abolished. We do not have a Wac corps, as such, any more. Would your Wac corps, for instance, be interested in a couple dozen thousand of rose-colored brassieres?"

No, we said, the Wac supply officers probably would not be interested at all, on account of all the channels the army has to go through to buy things, get signatures and vouchers, distribute them, balance quartermaster books and all that.

"That's too bad," the French officer said. "This, I think, is a good buy." He shook his head in recollection of what obviously was a major problem and mused aloud some more.

Wanted Blue
It seems that the French Wacs, numbering about 2,000 or so in occupied Germany, had decided that they should be issued blue brassieres as standard equipment, and so they at Baden, Baden, French headquarters, had issued an order to that effect.

The requisition order was placed with a male quartermaster officer. The color made no difference to him, and he sent the order on to Marseille.

At Marseille another quartermaster officer got to pondering about blue brassieres. They're nuts up there in Baden Baden, he declared. And put an order in for rose-colored brassieres, thousands of them. The order went through routine channels to a factory at Lyon.

At Lyon, the factory went to work turning out thousands of rose-colored brassieres.

Abolished Wacs
In Paris, the assembly went to work abolishing the French Wacs. Now, said the French officer:

The quartermaster at Marseille has to explain why in the name of a name of a name he ordered several dozen thousand rose-colored brassieres.

The quartermaster at Baden Baden can, and does, say "Keep me out of it, because I said blue ones."

The factory at Lyons wants to know who is going to pay for the order, and when.

The government, in effect, says don't bother us about it. There aren't any Wacs, so obviously there aren't any official Wac brassieres.

This is the first trip that Mr. Lincoln has made to this section since 1941.

Mr. Kennan accompanied his husband to Kansas City.

Stocks Generally Dosed

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Tired-looking stock markets generally dosed at slightly depressed levels in today's market although scattered issues managed to keep on the rise after three rallying sessions. Prices gave ground after a moderately mixed opening but dealings were the slowest of the month. While the technical picture generally was at a standstill, declines of fractions to 3 or more points were in the majority by midday. These losses generally converted into modest plus signs in the final hour. Trends again wavered toward the last and recessions were deepened by the loss of Transports of around 1,000,000 shares were the smallest since late August.

Conspicuous declines included U. S. Steel, Youngstown Sheet & Tube, General Motors, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, Deere & Co., and others. Dow Chemical, Santa Fe, Great Northern, Baltimore and Ohio and Standard Oil (N.J.), gained, however, by Goodrich, Eastman Kodak, J. C. Penney, Chesapeake and Ohio and Atlantic Coast Line. Bonanza were narrow.

Religious Education Week

Churches of forty Protestant denominations in the United States and Canada will participate next week in the 16th observance of Religious Education Week, during which particular stress will be laid upon the place of religion in the family.

It is axiomatic that religious training must begin in the home, and that unless parents are alive to their responsibilities as moral mentors, the spiritual fabric of the nation cannot remain strong.
The reported growth of moral laxity among the young is one reason why religious leaders are seeking to revive such slowly disappearing family practices as recitation of grace at mealtime and the offering of prayers in common before the family retires at night.

It is the duty of parents not only to inform their children during the early years of their lives on matters of Christian teaching, but to encourage them to cultivate habits of virtue, forbearance, fortitude and self-denial that will serve them well in later years and make them cooperative and useful citizens.

In a message endorsing Religious Education Week, John Edgar Hoover, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, warned that many parents have failed to meet the task of properly guiding their children through "an era of behaviorism that is vastly different from a century ago." He said this is reflected in the fact that 49 per cent of the burglars, 61 per cent of the car thieves, 30 per cent of the rapists, 35 per cent of the robbers, and more than 33 per cent of the thieves in 1945 were youngsters under voting age.

"Lack of moral responsibility in a child means in most instances," Mr. Hoover declared, "that parents are indifferent to God and the necessity of religion. If parents want their children to obey the spirit and the letter of the law, and in all ways cooperate in maintaining law and order and to advance the common welfare, they must begin early with religious training in the home circle."

Jesus and the Law of Love
Scripture: Psalms 119:33-38;
Matthew 5:42-48

By William E. Gilroy, D. D.

The commandment of love which Jesus gave His disciples was new only in the sense that He gave it new depth, meaning, and application. He extended it toward enemies as a power conquering selfishness and hate; and, without lessening any of its power and direction toward God.
He gave it new force in relation to man.

John expressed the full spirit of the teaching of the Master when he asked: "If a man love not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?"

As a boy in the synagogue, from Sabbath to Sabbath, Jesus had heard the solemn words, pronounced as a regular part of the service, "Hear, O Israel, the Lord is one Lord; and thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy soul and with all thy might" (Deut. 6:4, 5). Less emphasized, but also a part of Israel's early religion, was the law of love to one's neighbor.

The distinction of Jesus as a teacher was that, instead of attaching importance to ritual observance and the minor matters of the law, He put all the emphasis upon the high and living truth.

When a lawyer tempted Him with the question concerning eternal life, Jesus turned the question back upon His question-

er. "What is written in the law?
How readest thou?" The lawyer, if he was to make at all an non-est reply, could not do other than reply in terms of the two great commandments of Judaism—of love to God with all the heart and soul and mind, and the commandment "like unto it" of love to one's neighbor.

Jesus commented that answer,
"This do." He said, "and thou shalt live." He also said, "On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

It was a Jewish way of saying that they constituted the very essence of religion; it was a rebuke to those for whom religion consisted of formal observances to the neglect of honesty, justice, mercy and love.

It is with sadness that one realizes that the course of religion during the centuries of the Christian church has followed Lord and more closely the example of the recluse Scribes and Pharisees than that of the Master and the saintly in Israel.

If this had been true of all in the church that institution would long ago have perished or lost all its power. One may thank God for the faithful and true Christians, who in every age and in every communion and division of the church have kept alive the pure flame of the religion of love, in word and deed seeking earnestly to follow the precepts and example of the Master who taught and fulfilled the law of love.

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—With the stock market "acting up" more than at any time in five years, no move has been made by President Truman or Secretary of the Treasury Snyder to bring the Securities and Exchange Commission back from Philadelphia. Created by Roosevelt to protect the public from Wall street, the SEC is still being carefully kept out of Washington—and certain interests hope it remains in exile.

Meanwhile, had Secretary Snyder consulted the SEC before making his ambiguous statement on the slump, he would have found a significant report regarding the entire stock market. Here are some of the inside facts shown in the SEC report:

- Several weeks before the market nose dive, new issues of corporate and auto stocks failed to arouse public buying, so that the underwriting houses stuck with the stocks, had to raise cash to pay for them. This meant they had to unload government bonds and blue-chip stocks such as du Ponts and American Tel and Tel to get the cash. This was the first selling wave to sag the market.
- Simultaneously, investment houses got wind of a new fear psychology. The public was afraid the long upward climb of the market was at an end. They wanted to get out before the downward trend started. Telltale signs was the fact that congressional defeat of OPA should have sent the market soaring, but didn't.
- Later the commerce department issued a report that 18 billions in inventories had piled up on factory shelves, and that inventories were increasing at the rate of half a billion per month faster than goods are being consumed. This was a storm warning that the peak of the boom was passed.
- The high employment rate (57 million in July) is due partly to the fact that the government is still spending 18 billions a year on armaments, almost three times the entire national budget in peacetime.

Note—On the other hand, the U. S. population increase plus the tremendous buying power still in the hands of the public, plus the continued scarcity of many consumer goods, should offset some of these downward factors. The country, according to Washington economists, is basically sound.

Napoleon John J. Lewis
 John L. Lewis, the most powerful man in the American Federation of Labor, is now comparing himself to Napoleon.

Lunching with a friend who complimented him on his tremendous labor victories, Lewis swelled with pride as the friend recalled how John L. had bludgeoned more out of the White House for his miners than any other labor leader, had helped mastermind the AFL seamen's strike and had even been praised by Robert U. Wason, president of the National Association of Manufacturers.

"Don't you feel elated over all these victories?" asked the friend.

"No, not particularly," replied Lewis. "I guess Napoleon didn't feel particularly elated when he won a campaign he had planned for months."

Russia's Iron Curtain
 At a time when US-USSR relations are the most delicate in history, the state department's program to sell the Russian people on American friendship has hit another snag. This time it is the army.

It took most of last spring and summer for the state department to sell congress on the importance of using propaganda to penetrate the "iron curtain." Finally, however, congressmen realized that the Russian people were being fed a barrage of anti-American poison and that something should be done to counteract it. So

DEVIL'S LAUGHTER

XXIV
 NOW that I was a graduate nurse, I could no longer spend so much time at Innisfail. However, it being nearer to Saint Gregory's than my home, I usually went there on my time off. And indeed, I had felt for years that Innisfail was my home.

My mother and father had been none too pleased at my decision to study nursing. They would have had me go to normal school. After all, they pointed out reproachfully, all the Hart cousins in Boston were school teachers, as well as Cousin Julia on my mother's side, who had, of course, afterwards gone into the convent. Nurses saw too much of the not-so-nice things of life, they said, and worked too hard, also. But I held out for my training, and they finally gave in, having by now become resigned to me and my queer notions.

I came to Innisfail one wintry day after my first year as a full-fledged nurse, arriving in the midst of a light fall of snow. I had a week off duty and planned to spend it with Ellen, being a little worried about her. She had developed a chest cold and it had hung on longer than it should. I felt she should still be in bed and I was prepared to take over for her for the week, should it be necessary.

It was twilight when I arrived and just after that the storm began in real earnest, with huge snowflakes and a cutting wind that howled steadily all around the house.

"If it keeps on like this," Ellen said at dinner, "we'll be cut off from town." But I thought that quite unlikely.

I prevailed upon Ellen to at least go to bed early, though she was most scornful about resting during the day and letting me manage things for her. But she did consent to go upstairs at about eight o'clock and I went in to renew acquaintance with some of my old friends, the books in the library. Mark, I assumed, was either shut up in his study or gone to bed.

I SAT reading by the fire for some time, feeling delightfully cosy and relaxed, shut in there with the sound of the wind outside, and no patients expecting backrubs and what not. How long I sat there I do not know, only that it must have been until quite late, and I finally became sleepy and decided to go to bed myself.

On my way up to my room with my book under my arm, I stopped in the upper hall and peered out the window, trying to see the trees from that angle, but they were only blurred shapes glimpsed through the whirling snow. I had a hazy idea that I could see a figure beneath the trees but I was at once sure that it was only my imagination.

I had reached my room when I heard the sound of a bell, and for a moment I thought that, too, was only in my imagination. But listening, I heard it once more and hastened to answer it, lest Ellen should get up out of bed to do so and catch me cold.

I unlocked the door and swung it open. There was a flurry of snow and the wind was terrific, whipping my skirts around me and blowing my hair across my face. I pushed my hair back and held it, so that I could see. And then my breath caught in my throat and my heart was hammering so that I no longer heard the wind.

Colin Fitzgerald stood in the doorway, shaking the snow off him and smiling down at me.

Except that it was a snowy night instead of a rainy afternoon, it might have been that day I first saw him. The black Irishman arriving in a storm.

It was decided to market the full line of Sears' merchandise in Mexico. More important, these goods are to be sold at a flat 20 per cent markup over Sears' retail prices in the United States.

This figure contrasts sharply with the 100-300 percent markup over U. S. retail prices now charged for American goods in Mexico City's principal department stores, most of them French-owned.

Sears has purchased the building and property occupied for almost thirty years by the American school in Mexico City. Although the renovation and enlargement now being carried out may not be completed for another year, the company is already pouring vast quantities of merchandise into the country and storing it in rented warehouses. Items range from the simplest farm tool to parlor furniture and fur coats. As one of Mexico's leading customs brokers remarked:

"Where other stores bring in a couple of carloads of U. S. goods every month, Sears has shipped a dozen trainloads in the past ninety days."

The whole deal, including the confidence shown by Sears' experts in their calculations, has given long-established French dry goods firms a fine case of jitters. They have controlled the market for more than half a century, but do not have the merchandising power to compete effectively with the Sears organization.

Moreover, the big mail-order and chain-store outfit does not intend to limit its foreign invasion to Mexico. The next move will be into Brazil. Potentially, this means that Sears may soon be a dominant factor in the retail field throughout Latin America. And, if their project is THOUGH his dark eyes were smiling, for a moment he did not recognize me. Then he said, "Little Saint Cecilia, by all that's holy! And grown into a fine-looking woman, indeed." And he continued to gaze at me even after he had come into the hall and begun to remove his snow-covered overcoat. I saw then that the rest of his clothes were soaked, also.

I found my voice and my heart stopped hammering. I said, "Come in to the fire and get warm, and then you'd better get those wet things off at once."

He looked surprised and slightly amused, but he did go and stand before the fire, holding out his hands to the blaze, and his clothes began to steam in the warmth from the fire and drip in pools on the floor.

Then I noticed that he was shivering and I spoke again. "You really should get those things off," I told him.

"I'm quite all right," he said. "Won't you come over and sit down and talk to me for a few minutes?" Tell me all about everyone." He drew out a package of cigarettes and offered me one with quite his old nonchalance.

I began to feel annoyed. It seemed so senseless for him to stand there shivering and dripping all over the rug. I was about to speak again when Ellen appeared in the doorway beside me, wrapped in her bathrobe and beaming with delight at seeing Colin. Ah, she was so glad he was back, she told him, and wouldn't he like a nice hot drink?

"I would indeed," he told her, smiling down at her, and turning so that he could stem himself on the other side and start another pool in a different spot on the rug.

I protested at Ellen's getting the hot drink for him.

"You go back to bed, Ellen," I said. "I'll get it."

But she insisted. She knew just where things were, she said, and it would take but a minute.

Colin leaned back against the mantelpiece and continued to survive me with that faintly amused, interested light in his eyes.

How New Driver's Law Will be Enforced

This final article on Missouri's new driver's responsibility law shows how it will be enforced by taking a hypothetical automobile operator through the loss of his right to drive.

By George Sitterly

JEFFERSON CITY, Sept. 27.—(P)—A statute to bar careless and reckless drivers from Missouri trafficways by seeing that they are able to pay any damages assessed against them goes into effect October 6.

It is based on the premise that the driver who is unable—or unwilling—to pay the damages he may cause through his operation of an automobile is the one who caused the most accidents.

In order to reach the damage-responsible driver without discriminating against his more careful and thoughtful brother the law provides that what has sometimes been called the "first bite" privilege. That is, no driver has to prove financial responsibility for future accidents until he has had one for which he was unable or unwilling to pay a judgment within the required 30 days.

Law Goes Further

But the law goes a bit further. It requires proof of financial responsibility from any driver whose license has been revoked for any of several other traffic violations, including driving while intoxicated, using an automobile in commission of a felony or leaving the scene of an accident.

Perhaps the easiest and most understandable way to explain the workings of the new law, similar to those now being enforced in 37 other states, would be to take Mr. I. M. Careless through the troubles he might have:

Careless had been driving a good many years and had a strong dislike for pedestrians, making them scurry from his path with a raucous blare from his horn or a hair-splitting zip just behind them. He judged distance badly and killed a little girl.

Found at Fault

The circuit judge found him at fault and assessed full damages ($10,000 for the loss of a single life) against him. The court immediately notified the state commissioner of motor vehicles and at the end of the required 30-day period reported to the commissioner that Careless still hadn't paid up or made any arrangement to.

He didn't have that much cash, couldn't borrow even enough to start an installment payment of the damages and had no liability insurance.

So the commissioner took away his driver's license—depriving him of the right to drive—and his automobile registration—forcing him to sell his car. (The law provides that the commissioner will re-issue automobile registration and licenses to the new owner only when he is convinced Careless is not trying to hoodwink the authorities with a false sale, allowing him to retain the car.)

He needed his car in his business. Seeing that he couldn't get out of it any other way he prepared to pay up and managed to get liability insurance. After showing the commissioner that he was paying the first judgment and had obtained proof of future financial responsibility he got back his right to drive and to own his car.

How to Prove Responsibility

(He could have proved future responsibility by filing surety bond with the commissioner. Perhaps he got it from a standard surety company or got two friends with sufficient real property to sign with him. Or it might be that he suddenly became owner of cash or securities totaling at least $10,000 and deposited them with the secretary of state. In either case he could get return of his bond or security by declaring he wasn't going to drive any more.)

Even if he files bankruptcy after an accident that won't relieve him of his financial responsibility in that judgment or proof of responsibility in the future. The law closed that loophole with a special section.

Careless could get his insurance from any casualty company licensed to operate in Missouri. The law also applies to drivers from other states, but their insurance policies need not be in Missouri-licensed companies.

Blind Since Birth; Sees A Little

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(P)—A dream came true Thursday for a 14-year-old Artesian, S. D. farm girl.

The child, Bette Goudy, has been blind since birth. Today she was able to see—only a little, but it was still seeing.

Bette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Goudy brought the girl here two weeks ago for an operation. A cornea from a stillborn baby was transplanted to her right eyeball by Dr. Richard Peritt.

Bette had waited three years, until Dr. Peritt returned from military service, for the operation.

Today the bandages were removed and Bette was able to receive hand movements, fingers and various colored flowers. She said everything seemed "magnified" in comparison with what she had imagined.

A hospita spokesman said the operation was considered completely successful and that Bette would see more and better as time went on.

CPA Be Continued Through December

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—Reconversion Director John R. Steelman announced Thursday night that the Civilian Production Administration, which has broad control powers over scarce materials, would be continued intact beyond next December 31.

"None of its functions will be transferred to any other agency," the announcement said.

Steelman's reference to the national housing agency.

John D. Small, CPA administrator, recently suggested that NHA take over from CPA jurisdiction over non-housing construction. NHA Administrator Wilson W. Wyatt opposed this.

Will Speed Up On Discharges

To Advance The Release For About 300,000 Men

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(P)—The army ordered Thursday the discharge of a "substantial" proportion of an estimated 300,000 enlisted men be advanced up to six months.

"Certain categories" of non-regular army enlisted men stationed in the United States, who are within six months of attaining eligibility for discharge under existing regulations, are to be released if they can be spared.

Those arriving from overseas who are within six months of becoming eligible for release "will be immediately processed for separation."

Further the war department directed that men serving in either the United States or overseas who are within six months of release and present evidence of acceptance as college or university students will be discharged "with as little delay as possible."

Non-volunteers now must serve 18 months so that the effect of the new order is to reduce the service of some men to a single year.

The war department said the action was taken "in consideration of budgetary limitations," and were aimed also at increasing efficiency. Dates for the release of many officers similarly were advanced earlier this week by six months or more.

Officials said they could not estimate how many enlisted men will be affected but said the number would be "substantial."

Shot Is Taken At Charles Bickford

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 27.—(P)—Charles Bickford, a screen villain, was shot at Thursday after 2 unidentified men flagged him down as he was enroute in his auto to his home in nearby Playa Del Rey, he reported to police.

Bickford said one of the men ordered him to get out of the machine but that he elbowed him and sped away. The other man fired a shot that struck the rear window and ricocheted, the actor said.
